Acknowledgements

There are always omissions on any acknowledgement page but I will identify and publicly thank those who contributed significantly to this publication.

First, there are two pastors, Roger Elgert and Matt Bott. It was Roger who provided the necessary encouragement to begin this project and it was Matt who provided the momentum to complete it.

Then there are four ladies whose typing and re-typing (all the while correcting my spelling) was the main contribution to the finished product, Doris Reich, Leah Harper, Susie Owens and Faye Miller.

I suppose I should thank my fine wife, Phyllis, who tolerated the mass disarray in our living room twice, first in 1976 and then again in 1982.
